About Us

Established in the year 2006, we at Southern Tools & Hardware Mart are the supplier of STABILA Germany, & BETA Italy, in India. Besides, we also import various hand tools, torque tools and lifting items from leading brands all over the European Market. Our wide range meets the demands of heavy engineering industries, petro chemicals and marine sectors.

Our range includes pneumatic hand tools, industrial torque tools, tohnichi torque screwdriver, hazet hand tools, industrial power tools, tool cabinets, chain hoist, measuring instruments, aviation tools, etc.

Our association with reputed vendors across the nation & an excellent Distributor network has helped us in consistently delivering qualitative products to our clients within the committed time frame. This has helped us in establishing a wide clientele across India as well as in international destinations.

We are led under the able guidance of our promoter Mr. Topiwala. His years of industry experience have enabled us to meet the customers' requirements, so we accordingly procure and offer wide array of superior quality hand tools, torque tools and lifting items to our widespread clients based all over the world.
